THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1769.

CONSTANTINOPLE, December 1.

WE continue to make great Preparations for the intended War; a great Quantity of Warlike Stores are collecting at Tophana, which are from thence to be tranſported, by Way of the Black Sea, to our Army.

The Preſents the Ambaſſador from the Court of France has made to the Porte, are extremely magnificent, and valued at 50,000 Crowns. They conſiſt of Pieces of fine Porcelain, Plate, Snuff Boxes, Cloths of Gold, Gold Watches, ſet with Diamonds, and Chamber Clocks: One of the latter is of exquiſite Workmanſhip, being made by the famous Paſſement; and ſhews the Movements of the Sun, the Changes of the Moon, and the different Motions of the Earth, according to the Copernican Syſtem.

Dec. 16. His Sublime Highneſs has commanded the Greeks, Armenians, and Jews, inhabiting this Capital, to furniſh the Janiſaries, immediately, with the Sum of 650,000 Piaſtres, towards cloathing and ſupplying thoſe Troops with the ſeveral Neceſſaries for a March: At the ſame Time his Highneſs aſſured thoſe People he ſhould not exact from them any other Tribute.

The 6th of December, a Pacha, with 4000 Horſemen deſtined for the Army, arrived from Natolia, in the Neighbourhood of this City, and ſet out the next Day for the Frontiers. They continue to work at the Arſenal with indefatigable Induſtry, upon a great Number of flat-bottomed Boats, which are ordered to be got ready with the utmoſt Expedition.

PETERSBOURG, Dec. 26. An Ordinance was publiſhed the 21ſt of October laſt, by which the Empreſs directed that one Man in Three Hundred ſhould be enliſted throughout the whole Extent of her Dominions; but another Ordinance was iſſued the 15th of November, by which double that Number are ordered to be raiſed; which, according to the laſt Calculation that was made of the Inhabitants of this Empire, will raiſe 50,000 Recruits, which are to be diſtributed into the Regiments that are to make the firſt Campaign. All the Preparations for War, are carried on with the greateſt Diligence.

BELGRADE, Dec. 21. According to an ancient Cuſtom eſtabliſhed among the Turks, which deprives all People, except Mahometans, from bearing Arms, during the Time the Porte is at War, the Grand Signior has iſſued an Ordinance, enjoining all his Subjects who are not Muſſelmen to deliver up all the Arms they are poſſeſſed of.

VENICE, Jan. 4. In all Appearance, the preſent Agreement between the Turks and Montenegrins will not laſt long. Scarce were the former retired into Winter Quarters, when Stephano appeared again at the Head of a great Number of his Party. He had concealed himſelf in the higheſt Mountains, from whence he is now come down into the Villiages, which the Turks had driven him from, and ſhows himſelf there without any Sort of Uneaſineſs. The Porte, in order to rid themſelves of every other Apprehenſion, during their Quarrel with Ruſſia, thought it neceſſary to diſarm all the Greeks under their Dominion. The Inhabitants of the Morea refuſed to obey the Order, on which Occaſion, ſome violent Diſputes aroſe, particularly at Patras, in the Neighbourhood of Maina, and in Arcadia, where ſeveral Lives have been already loſt. The Greeks have likewiſe choſen themſelves a Leader, and will by no Means ſubmit themſelves to be diſarmed.

WARSAW, Jan. 7. Even the Turks are ſtruck with Horror at the Barbarities daily committed by the Confederates, upon the Diſſidents; the Body of Captain Godin, who was murdered by the Confederates of Bar, continued without Burial ſeveral Days, and was expoſed by thoſe Barbarians, to be devoured by the Dogs.

Jan. 14. The Situation of Public Affairs in this Kingdom, becomes every Day more and more critical, by the declared Rupture between Ruſſia and the Ottoman Empire. What appears ſingular is, that on the one Hand the Porte aſſures the Grandees of great Affection towards them, and of intereſting itſelf in favour of the Republic; and on the other, attacks the Election of the King, as illegal, at leaſt it appears ſo, by the Grand Vizir's Letter of the 28th of October. This Letter ſeems to be calculated for promoting a Diſturbance in the Kingdom, which is already too much diſtracted by ſo many different Confederacies; but we are perſuaded that it will have no Effect, at leaſt ſo far as regards the Perſon of the King, who may rely upon an unſhaken Attachment from the moſt valuable Part of the Nation.

According to ſome Letters from Podolia, the Hydamacks, joined by ſome of the Peaſants, continue to exerciſe great Cruelties. Other Letters aſſure us, that the Line formed by the Ruſſian Troops on the Side of Moldavia, is not only compleated, but likewiſe, that in caſe of Need, it will be reinforced by ſeveral Regiments, who are within Three or Four Marches of it.

Jan. 28. His Majeſty holds continual Conferences with his Miniſters, upon the critical State of Affairs. We have juſt heard, that the Confederates are again committing Ravages in the Palatinate. After having pillaged and burnt the little Town of Sedomin, they maſſacred ſeveral Hundreds of the Inhabitants, as well Jews as Chriſtians. A new Confederacy is alſo formed at Alexandrow, and the Confederates have ſeized Money Contributions on the Magiſtrates of the neighbouring Places. The Prince Sulkowſk was not taken by the Pruſſians, but is at Bilitz with the Biſhop of Kaminiek, who has furniſhed him with 10,000 Ducats, for the better carrying on his Enterprizes.

LEGHORN, Jan. 23. We have juſt received the News, that the Corſicans have had a conſiderable Blow at Oletta. The French Troops have ſurprized the Town of Orminio, in which they found 12 large Field-Pieces, 800 Muſkets, 700 Barrels of Powder, great Quantities of Grain, and a large Sum of Money. It is ſaid a Reinforcement of 40,000 Men will be ſent to the French Army, and that ſeveral Regiments are already embarking to join them.

VIENNA, Jan. 21. The preſent Juncture of Affairs ſeems fully to employ the Cabinet. Little is ſeen but the paſſing and repaſſing of Couriers. The Ruſſian Ambaſſador has ſent Three to his Court, within this Fortnight, and the Pruſſian Miniſter has received as many from Berlin.

LONDON, December 31.

By a Letter from the Iſland of St. Chriſtopher's we are aſſured, that the Aſſembly have voted Five Hundred Johannes's of 21. 26 s. each, as a Preſent to John Wilkes, Eſq;

Sunday Se'nnight, the Clerk of a certain Pariſh in Berkſhire, who is a ſtaunch Patriot, had his Head ſo full of the Cauſe, that in giving out the Pſalm, he exclaimed, "Let us ſing to the Praiſe of WILKES and LIBERTY, Two Staves of the 45th Pſalm."

Jan. 17. It is ſaid the late Speaker often declared, that had he been in the Chair when Mr. Wilkes was ſent to the Tower, he would have gone to the Tower Gates, with his Mace on his Shoulder, have demanded the Body of the Priſoner; for that the Revolution is a ſtanding Proof how valuable the Vote of One Member is, when all the Bleſſings of Liberty turned on ſo ſmall a Circumſtance as a ſingle Vote.

Jan. 18. To ſupply the Abſence of that Military Force, as well as of Six Battalions which are to go to Ireland, 12,000 Militia are immediately to be embodied; and 30 Companies of Invalids, each conſiſting of 120 Men, commanded by One Captain, One Lieutenant, and One Enſign, are to be draughted from the Out-Penſioners of Chelſea Hoſpital: The Officers from the Seniors of each Rank upon the Half-Pay Liſt. Theſe Companies are to do Duty in the different Garriſons of Great-Britain.

Jan. 19. It is ſaid that moſt of the New-York Ships will go back empty this Year.

The Trade to Pennſylvania ſtill continues open, but 'tis thought the Ships now going will be the laſt, and that the Determination to take no more of our Goods will, next Year, be general throughout the Northern Colonies.

We hear that ſundry great Manufacturers of Manchester, Norwich, and other Parts, who uſed to receive large Orders for Goods at this Time of the Year from the Merchants trading to New-England and New-York, have been told that there are now none, which will oblige them to diſcharge a great Number of Hands.

We hear from Berlin, that his Pruſſian Majeſty has received ſome very important Diſpatches from Conſtantinople, which, it is thought, will occaſion Affairs on the Continent to bear a Face very different from what has been generally imagined.

Advices from Leghorn, of the 27th of Dec. aſſure us, that the French Troops are continually haraſſed by the Corſican Parties. The 14th of laſt month, in the Dead of the Night, Sieur Polone, at the Head of only Sixty brave Fellows, attacked and made himſelf Maſter of Four Redoubts which the French had erected for carrying on a Communication between Oletta and Furiani; in this Affair a great Number of the King's Troops were put to the Sword, and Five Officers were made Priſoners.

Jan. 20. It is aſſured that Mr. Serjeant Glynn, the preſent truly worthy Repreſentative of Middleſex, having in Part fulfilled his Promiſe to the Public, of "bringing the Charge down to the Hirers and hired," is now furniſhed with ſufficient Materials to fulfil his Promiſe, with reſpect to the former; in Conſequence of which, he is determined, that notwithſtanding their Greatneſs, they ſhall not break the Laws with Impunity, no more than the unfortunate Hirelings, which they employed and ſeduced to break the moſt ſacred Laws of the Community.

The Friends of the Colonies and Nation, in general, are in high Spirits, as Affairs are ſaid to be likely to terminate to the mutual Satisfaction of all Parties.

It is aſſerted, that the Britiſh Exports to America, have fallen ſhort laſt Year upwards of One Hundred Thouſand Pounds.

Jan. 23. It is now confidently reported, that the Fleet fitting out for the Mediterranean is to proceed farther up, and to bombard a certain capital City. This is ſaid to be at the Requiſition of a certain Power in Alliance with Great-Britain.

We are told, that Two eminent Lawyers are preparing a peculiar Charge againſt a popular Gentleman, (the Heads of which have been ſhewn) to be laid before the proper Powers; with Reaſons thereto annexed, why immediate Steps ſhould not be taken to procure the Impriſonment of the ſaid Gentleman from his Majeſty's Realms for ever.

It was this Day reported, that an Ambaſſador is expected from the Grand Signior to the Court of Great-Britain. And that our Court will remain entirely neuter in the preſent Diſpute between the Empreſs of Ruſſia, and the Ottoman Porte.

By Letters from Leghorn we learn, that the Sieur Stephen Durazzo, had lately entered into a Plot with Count Perez, to deliver up the Fort of Campo Moro to the French; but that the Affair was diſcovered by Durazzo's Brother, who ſecured the Fort, and obliged the Conſpirators to fly to Ajaccio.

Jan. 24. There is juſt finiſhed by Meſſrs. Dixon and Coates, Coach-makers in Poor-Jury Lane, a magnificent Chariot, a Preſent for John Wilkes, Eſq; the Painting and Varniſh are exquiſitely fine. The Box is covered with green Velvet, richly embroidered, and fringed with Gold. The Harneſs is curiouſly ornamented with a Variety of Braſs Work.

A Gentleman having obſerved, that though there has been much talk of the ſuperb Carriage lately finiſhed, and deſigned as a Preſent to Mr. Wilkes, he had heard no Mention made of any Horſes being to be given with it: To which it was replied by one preſent, that Horſes were quite needleſs, for that the Populace will not ſuffer their Favourite to be drawn by any Animals but themſelves.

Jan. 27. We are aſſured, from good Authority, that in the Two late Elections for the County of Middleſex, Sir William Beauchamp Proctor, expended upwards of Twelve Thouſand Pounds.

Jan. 28. The French King has raiſed Twenty Millions of Livres, at Ten per Cent. This would ſeem as if that Kingdom was little able to begin Hoſtilities with any Power, particularly with Great-Britain.

We hear the Verdicts of a certain popular Gentleman are confirmed.

Jan. 30. By the Diſpoſitions making by the Ruſſians, it ſhould ſeem that they intend to make Part of a Winter Campaign, as well to prevent the Turks aſſembling their Forces, as to oblige them to remove from the Frontiers of Poland and the Empire of Ruſſia, and thereby to eſtabliſh the Theatre of War in the Dominions of the Grand Signior.

Feb. 1. The witty Lord Wharton, on the Expulſion of Biſhop Atterburry, ſaid, he had already lived to ſee that but Two Things were out of the Power of the Britiſh Parliament: One was, to make a Man of a Woman; the other, to frame an Oath that a Courtier would not ſwallow.

We are informed, that Six Ships of the Line are to be added to the formidable Fleet now fitting out for the Mediterranean, for the 6000 Troops we are obliged, by an Article of the late Peace, to furniſh a certain great Power on the Continent whenever ſhe is attacked; and that the Britiſh Fleet will ſail to Conſtantinople.

A late Letter from Rome ſpeaks of the polite Reception Lord B—— has met with in that City from all Ranks of People; the Pope has conferred on him ſeveral diſtinguiſhed Marks of his Eſteem; and the Nobleſſe (to a Man) are ſtudious in making every Thing agreeable to him. Whatever Shades there might be in his political Character, there is not the leaſt Doubt there are few in Europe who poſſeſs a more liberal and extenſive Knowledge of Science, and the Belle Letters, than his Lordſhip.

Feb. 2. We hear that a Subſcription has been ſet on Foot in the City of Corke, in order to enable the Merchants there to make the brave Paoli a conſiderable Preſent of Beef, Butter, Pork and other Proviſions; and that it has met with great Encouragement.

An Augmentation of the Britiſh Squadron in the Mediterranean is now much the Subject of Converſation, and it is apprehended a Day will arrive when the French may repent their cruel and arbitrary Invaſion of Corſica.

Feb. 3. It is now become faſhionable for the Ladies to drink patriotic Toaſts:——Thoſe already come to Hand, are, Lady Temple, Lady Cambden, Lady Saville, Miſs Wilkes, Mrs. Hayley, and Mrs. Macaulay.

Feb. 4. Mr. Wilkes's Behaviour, on a ſolemn Occaſion, was acknowledged, even by his Opponents, to be firm, manly, decent; revering, but not crouching.

Feb. 6. A new Writ is iſſued out for a Member for Guildford, in the Room of Sir Fletcher Norton, Knight, whoſe Patent was made out on Friday, as Lord Chief Juſtice in Eyre.

We hear Humphry Coats, Eſq; who has been very ſtrenuous in the Cauſe of a popular Patriot is gone down to Guilford, to offer himſelf a Candidate.

By a Letter from Paris, dated Jan. 23, we hear that they have received no News of any Conſequence from Corſica, but that great Preparations are making for an entire Conqueſt of thoſe ſtubborn Iſlanders early in the next Spring; ſeveral Regiments, whoſe Battalions have been completed, have received Orders to file off towards Provence, to embark on board a Number of Tranſports at Toulon, which are deſtined for Corſica.

It is confidently aſſerted that no Perſon, who has been expelled, can have a Place during the Parliament in which he was ſo expelled. It is ſaid it took Riſe on Sir R—— W——'s being re-choſen after Expulſion.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, to a Gentleman in London, dated Dec. 23.

——"You Engliſh conſider us French as Enemies to Liberty: You reproach us for endeavouring to reduce Corſica to our Obedience, and ſay that if we heard of a Freeman on the other Side of the Globe, you ſuppoſe we ſhould haſten thither to make a Slave of him. How eaſy is it for Men to ſee the Faults of others, while blind to their own! The Corſicans are not ſo remote from us as the Americans are from you;——they never enriched us by their Labour or their Commerce;——they never engaged in our Wars, and fought, as Brothers, Side by Side with us and for us, bleeding in the same Cause;——they never loved and honoured us;——they are not our Children.——But all this your American Colonists have been, and are to you!——Yet at this very Moment, while you are abusing us for attempting to reduce the Corsicans, you yourselves are about to make Slaves of a much greater Number of those British Americans; depriving them of their Property by the Authority of your Laws; taking away the Right of giving their own Money; arbitrarily dissolving their Parliaments and dragooning their Citizens. In short, you appear to have no Idea of Liberty, or real Desire to see it flourish and increase; all the Liberty you seem to value, is the Liberty of abusing your Superiors and of tyrannizing over those below you."

CHARLES-TOWN, (SOUTH-CAROLINA) March 2.

The Superfluities imported here from Britain, and other Articles which we may make among ourselves, are supposed to have drawn upwards of 100,000 Sterling from among us, for several Years preceding the passing of the Stamp-Act.

A Calculation having been made of the Amount of the Purchase-Money of Slaves expected here the present Year, it is computed at 270,000l. Sterling, which Sum will by that Means be drained from this Province.

A Subscription is actually setting on Foot for establishing and supporting a Manufactory-House in this Town. And it is said to be in Contemplation, also to establish a Paper Manufactory in this Country.

The last Advices from Mobille are, that the Spanish Frigates, left by Don Juan d'Ulloa, at New-Orleans, were gone from thence: That the Vessel, in which the Gentlemen who were charged with Remonstrances to the French King, after having been at Sea for some Time, sprung a Leak and put back, and did not proceed on her Voyage 'til the 12th of January: And, that the French Inhabitants were determined never to suffer a Spaniard to set Foot in that Country again, but such as may put in by Stress of Weather.

BOSTON, March 20.

It is said that the Duke of R—ch—d and Earl of Sh—ne, Two Noblemen who have distinguished themselves by their steady Attachment to the Cause of Liberty and Truth, dissented from the late Resolves, passed in a certain august Assembly; alledging that it was not consistent with their Sentiments to proceed to Censure upon hearing one Side only.

At a Meeting of the Select-Men, it was unanimously voted, that the following ADDRESS be presented to his EXCELLENCY FRANCIS BERNARD, Esq;

May please your EXCELLENCY,

AT a Time, when artful and mischievous Men have so far prevailed, as to foment and spread Divisions in the British Empire: When mutual Confidence, which had so long subsisted, with mutual Advantage between the Subjects in Britain and America, is in a great Measure broken: When Means are at length found, even to excite the Resentment of the Mother-State, against her Colonies; and they are publicly charged with being in a State of Disobedience to Law, and ready to resist the constitutional Authority of the Nation: The Select-Men of this Metropolis, cannot be the unconcerned, or silent Spectators of the Calamities which in Consequence thereof, have already fallen upon its Inhabitants.

To behold this Town surrounded with Ships of War, and Military Troops, even in a Time of Peace, quartered in its very Bowels; exercising a Discipline, with all the Severity which is used in a Garrison, and in a State of actual War, is truly alarming to a free People. And what still heightens the Misfortune, is, that our Gracious Sovereign and his Ministers, have formed such an Idea of the present State of the Town, as to induce a Necessity of this Naval and Military Force, for the Aid of the Civil Magistrate in the Preservation of its Peace and good Order.

Your Excellency can witness for the Town, that no such Aid is necessary: Loyalty to the Sovereign, and an inflexible Zeal for the Support of his Majesty's Authority, and the happy Constitution, is its just Character: And we may appeal to the impartial World, that Peace and Order were better maintained in the Town before it was even rumoured that his Majesty's Troops were to be quartered among us, than they have been since. Such a Measure then, we are persuaded, would never have been ordered by the Wisdom of the British Administration, had not the Necessity of it been drawn from the Representations of some of his Majesty's Servants in this Province.

Your Excellency will allow us to express our Opinion, that the Public Transactions of the Town, and the Behaviour of some of its individual Inhabitants have been greatly misapprehended by his Majesty's Ministers.

We therefore in Duty to the Town we have the Honour to serve, respectfully wait on your Excellency, and pray that you would be pleased to communicate to us, such Representations of Facts only, as you have judged proper to make, since the Commencement of the last Year. And as there is a prevailing Report, that Depositions are, and have been taken ex Parte, to the Prejudice of the Town and particular Persons, may we not assure ourselves that your Excellency will, in Justice, cause to be laid before us such other Representations as may have come to your Knowledge, that the Town knowing clearly and precisely, what has been alledged against it, may have an Opportunity of vindicating itself.

Attest. WILLIAM COOPER, Town-Clerk.

The foregoing Address was accordingly presented his Excellency by the Select-Men of the Town last Friday Morning, and on Saturday Afternoon his Excellency was pleased to return the following Answer.

GENTLEMEN,

THE Propriety of your addressing me upon Public Business, I shall not now dispute; but in my Answer I shall confine myself to such Parts of your Address, as relate to you as the Select-Men, or to the Town as a Body.

I have no Reason to think that the Public Transactions of this Town, have been misapprehended by his Majesty or his Ministers, or that their Opinions thereon, are founded upon any other Accounts than those published by the Town itself.

If therefore, you can vindicate yourselves from such Charges as may arise from your own Publications, you will in my Opinion, have nothing further to apprehend.

Province-House, Feb. 18, 1769. FRA. BERNARD.

PHILADELPHIA.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London to his Friend in this City, dated Jan. 19, 1769.

"I had the Pleasure of dining, a few Days ago, with Mr. Wilkes, in the King's-Bench Prison, in Company with several Gentlemen from America, and others from different Parts of England. He is one of the most entertaining Men in the World. I heard a Number of Sentiments from him, that would have done Honour to a SIDNEY or a HAMDEN. He is an Enthusiast for AMERICAN Liberty; and says, if you can but preserve an Equality among one another, you will always be free in Spite of every Thing. Titles are the Bane of an Infant Country. He enquired in a particular Manner after Mr. Dickinson: His Farmer's Letters, he says, are superior to any Thing of the Kind that was ever published in any Age or Country. He spoke with as much Virulence as ever against Scotland, for you must know, all the Scots Members of Parliament, in both Houses, are against America. The Toasts we drank were as follow: His Majesty and all the Royal Family. Liberty to the British Empire. John Glynn, Esq; The Pennsylvania Farmer. Number 45. Daniel Dulany, Esq; of Maryland. James Otis, Esq; of Boston. &c."

Extract of another Letter of the same Date.

"Mr. Dickinson's Farmer's Letters, have carried his Name and Reputation all over the British Dominions, I was a few Days ago in a large Company of Patriots and Advocates of Liberty, where I heard a Thousand fine Encomiums passed upon them. It is a general Remark here, that all the State Papers, such as Addresses, Petitions, &c. which come from America, are wrote in a Stile not to be equalled in any Part of the British Dominions. There is a plain Reason for it; Men will always write well upon Subjects they feel thoroughly."

By Capt. Young, we learn, that Capt. Kennedy, in a Snow for Liverpool, left Jamaica the latter End of December last, but Two Days after, about Ten Leagues off the West-End of the said Island, the Snow sprung a Leak, and the Water was up to her Lower-Deck before it was discovered; they fell to the Pumps, but could do nothing, on which they hoisted out the Yawl, and had but just Time to put One Keg of Bread, another of Water, and a Handkerchief of Dollars into it, when the Snow sunk. Thus were they, 15 in Number, with very little Provisions, no Cloaths, or Instruments, at the Mercy of the Wind and Sea; they made a Sail with their Handkerchiefs, and stood before the Wind. In a short Time their Provisions and Water were expended, when 8 of their Number died for Want; the others, after being 14 Days in the Boat, arrived at the Northern Triangles in the Bay of Honduras, but could find no Provisions there, on which they again set Sail, leaving one Man, who chose to stay behind, and in Two Days arrived at Key-Ambergrease, where they killed Two Boobies, and suck'd their Blood, which, together with a few Cocoa Nuts, revived them 'til they were taken off by a Sloop, and carried to George's Key, where the Captain, and Five others, arrived in a most dismal Condition.
